District-Attorney Begins an Investigation Into the Methods of "Professionals" Who Sign Bonds in Magistrates' Courts.

District-Attorney Jerome inaugurated o-day a mysterious John Doe inquiry wichh is said to concern the courts of have been made as to the methods of professional bondsmen in cases passing brough the Magistrates' Courts.

A clerk of one of the courts was ammoned to the Criminal Courts Building to-day and turned over to Assistant-District-Attorney Appleton, who took him before Judge McMahon in General Sessions, where he was sworn. Then he was escorted to Mr. Appleton's office and subjected to an examination that was lengthy and thorough, concerning information in the District-Attorney's possession.

Under orders from Mr. Jerome, his assistants refused to discuss this investigation, but rumors have leaked out that there will be sensational developments. Clerks from other police courts have been summoned to appear at Mr. Appleton's office, it is said.

Cullen, Paroled Under Suspended Sentence, Appears in Court on Charge in Two Weeks.

Peter Cullen, nineteen years old, of No. 443 West Thirty-ninth street, was sentenced to the Elmira Reformatory to-day by Judge McMahon, in General Sessions. This was his second appearance before Judge McMahon in two weeks. The first time, two weeks ago, sentence was suspended on the request of Miss Sage, daughter of Warden Sage, of the House of Refuge.

In 1902 Cullen was sent to the House of Refuge on a larceny charge. Miss Sage took an interest in him, and when he was accused of stealing $40 from a plumber, on Dec. 23, she secured his parole in the custody of Agent Kimball, of the Prison And Association.

Mr. Beugelsen appeared in Centre Street Police Court to-day and attempted to force a charge of assault against Policeman McConville, of the Bridge squad.

McConville, under strict orders to discipline the young ruffians who use football tactics against women in the orldge rush, discovered Jacob Goldstein, of No. 143 Humboldt street, in the act of butting onto a Flushing avenue car before all the passengers had succeeded in squeezing their way out. NAVY WILL GET TWO NEW BATTLESHIPS.

House Committee Decides in Fave of 16,000 - Ton Vessels to Carry Heaviest Armament. WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 .- The House Committee on Naval Affairs to-day decided upon the naval increase programme to be incorporated in the naval Appropriation bill, providing for but two battle-ships. They are to be of 16,000 tons each, representing the largest type by Eugene Hartnett, 105 Montgomery St. and carrying the heaviest armam and armor.

The vote by which two were adopted was 18 to 4. The Naval bill was completed ot-day and will be reported to the house b Chairman Foss. It carries approxi-mately $100,070,000. There were different views in the committee as to the number of ships that should be authorized, some favoring three, others but one, and at least one member opposed constructing any vessels. The first motion was for three bad tleships. An amendment was proposed limiting the number to one, which was defeated by a vote of 10 to 7. It was then amended sa as to provide for two, and adopted. The majority against providing torpedo and submarine craft was but one.

The bill provides for 3,000 additional seamen, and gives the Marine Corps 200 additional non-commissioned officers and 1,000 additional privates.
